

Subject: Forbes: Belize Tourism Board "Booze and Drinking Experiences Worth Traveling For" Story

Hi Dan,

Thank you for reaching out and sharing these story opportunities! On behalf of The Belize Tourism Board, we'd like to submit our recommendation for your upcoming "Booze and Drinking Experiences Worth Traveling For" story.

Copal Tree Lodge, a handpicked addition to the Muy'ono Resort collection, is inspired by beauty and biodiversity and strives for the most genuine hospitality while building a sustainable and development-driven community. This luxury hotel offers one-of-a-kind experiences through fine cuisine, adventure tours, remarkable architecture and unique drinking experiences, specifically those that allow guests to discover some of the finest rum Belize has to offer.

Located at the heart of the Copal Tree Lodge is the Rum Bar. Surrounded by shaded decks perched within the jungle canopy, guests are invited to read, relax, play games and above all sip on freshly made drinks. The Rum Bar offers an assortment of tropical drinks made with fresh squeezed juices, coconuts, exotic fruits and fresh herbs that are combined with home grown Belizean rum.

For spirit enthusiasts looking for a truly immersive and educational opportunity in Belize, Copal Tree Lodge offers Rum Camp, hosted at the recently launched Copalli Rum Distillery adjacent to Copal Tree Lodge. This four-day program lures experts and novices out to participate in the all-encompassing process of Copalli rum-making – from harvesting heirloom sugar cane to batching and bottling. Copalli rum, sourced from a 22,000-acre-farm in the pristine rainforest of Southern Belize, is an organic rum crafted with passion, sustainability and carefully selected ingredients, all on a single estate.

If you're interested in more information or have any questions, please let me know.

Thank you,